Civil No. 03-319-KAJ BD scanned

CR 99-82
JUDGE KENT A. JORDAN

SUPPLEMENTAL ATTACHMENT IN SUPPORT
OF PETITIONERS MOTION TO DISQUALIFY
DUE TO POSSIBLE BIAS AND PREJUDICE

NOW COMES, CHRISTOPHER CLEMONS, A/K/A Clinton French, by and in Pro-se, hereby respectfully submits this supplemental attachment in support of his motion to disqualify due to possible bias and prejudice.

This supplemental attachment is based on and in support of the original motion filed on March 31, 2006.

Petitioner desires to present to the court a copy of a "Motion For Enlargement of Time Nunc Pro Tunc" which was filed to the Third Circuit Appellate Court by Counsel John S. Malik while representing the petitioner on direct appeal.

This document clarifies the legal and factual basis for the claims already pleaded and set forth in the original motion to disqualify Judge Kent A. Jordan from proceeding any further in petitioner's case.

Moreover, it verifies petitioners assertion that John S. Malik (counsel for petitioner at the time) and Judge Kent A. Jordan had a working relationship with one another, at which time they were both working together on Adullah T. Hameens' death penalty case which in turn forced Malik to postpone the preparation and filing of petitioner's appeal.

In sum, this supplemental attachment has been prepared with the utmost care and certainty as to the facts and filed with the utmost deliberation consistent with the undelayed dispatch of the business of the court; stating the facts and basis for the disqualification or voluntary recusal of judge Kent A. Jordan.
